Vote counting process:

All first choices were tallied. Social and Economic Justice finished in the lead with 42% of the vote.

Transfer round 1: The lowest vote getter - Non Violence - is eliminated and votes for that candidates were transferred to remaining candidates based on second preferences.

All votes were tallied again. There was no majority winner so another runoff was required.

Transfer round 2: Still no majority winner. The next lowest vote getter - Grassroots Democracy - was eliminated and votes for that candidates were transferred to remaining candidates based on second preferences.

Social and Economic Justice - the plurality winner in round 1- wins with a majority of votes.
